One British foreign office official noted "Colonel Newcombe is rather sore at the way in which certain of his suggestions have been over-ruled and that he is inclined to take the line

... that too much attention has been paid to the interests of the Zionists and too little to those of the British government... Newcombe has been doing all he can for the British interests, but he did not yet understand that at this point in time the British interests include the successful outcome of ".the Zionist project
